

Dear Participants,

As with previous ICOSTEE conferences, this year you will have the opportunity to publish full conference proceedings / articles in our faculty journal, Analecta Technica Szegedinensia (online ISSN: 2064-7964). Anal. Tech. Szeged. is an online, Open Access, peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to the latest advancements in engineering related sciences, published under CC BY 4.0 license. The journal is indexed by several international scientific databases, such as DOAJ, EBSCO, ProQuest, or BASE.

Publication in Analecta Technica Szegedinensia is completely free of charge, no Article Processing Charges (APCs) are applied in any way.

The deadline for submission is 16th June, 2024. After the peer review process is complete, all the appropriate articles will be published in either a main volume of the Journal, or in a dedicated special issue.

If you intend to publish your conference material(s) in the Journal as a full article, please read the instructions below carefully.

- 1.) Create an Author profile in our submission system called OJS (Open Journal Systems) through the following link: <https://www.analecta.hu/index.php/analecta/user/register>. Please fill in all the applicable data precisely, with particular regard to name, affiliation, e-mail address and ORCID number.
- 2.) After successful registration, please visit the following link to find the article submission instructions: <https://www.analecta.hu/index.php/analecta/about/submissions>. Before submitting, please carefully read all the information related to the Authors, and make sure that your paper is suitable for publication by checking off the manuscript's compliance with all aspects of the "Submission Preparation Checklist".
- 3.) Analecta only accepts Manuscripts that are written in accordance with the currently applied and available template, which can be downloaded from here: Analecta Manuscript Template 2024
- 4.) If all the requirements are met, you may login with your registered username and password into the OJS, and submit your paper by visiting the following link: <https://www.analecta.hu/index.php/analecta/submission/wizard>
- 5.) Important notice: during your manuscript submission, please indicate in the "Comments for the Editor" textbox (it can be found on the first page of the submission procedure) that your Article is related to the ICOSTEE 2024 conference by writing "ICOSTEE 2024" in there.

- 6.) To shorten the time necessity of the publication process, we would like to encourage the Authors to suggest at least two experts in the dedicated field to Review the submitted article(s) by providing their full name, affiliation, and e-mail address in the “Comments for the Editor” textbox. Please note that the proposed candidate for Reviewing can not be the Author of the submitted article and/or hold any conflicts of interest.
